

THE NORTHERN KING CHARLES SPANIEL CLUB – OPEN SHOW

11TH September 2021

Thanks to the club for the invite, I considerate a great honour.

A small entry but an enjoyable one to sort out.

I think ‘compromise’ was the key word today.

Thanks to the exhibitors for entering and to Dale Hick for his sterling job at stewarding.

Class 1 Veteran Dog Entered 4 Absent 1

1 Mrs M Hunter Maynorth Shades Of Heaven At Hooebarton – Nice class to start the day. All 3 could change places at any time. A lovely free moving Ruby of 8 years old. Quality head piece, round large dark eye, correct nose placement and big healthy open nostrils. Sound front and rear. He has lovely rounded ribs, level top line and correct tail set and carriage. Presented in lovely coat. A shame he didn’t stay for his BVIS award.

2 Mr D & Mrs D Bailey Aldoricka Smokey Robinson – This Black and Tan was in fabulous condition for his 9 years. Super domed skull, square muzzle and good finish to his chin. He has a cobby body with well sprung ribs. Moved well in front but just a little close behind today. Beautifully presented.

Excellent cobby body with well sprung ribs. Sound front and rear. Just needs to settle a little on the move. Shown in beautiful coat and condition.

2 Miss S Maddison Justacharma Northern Magic – another nicely presented Tri who has a lovely sweet temperament. Very nice head shape, low set ears which were well feathered. Nice straight front legs and good rear with well bent stifles. A little finer throughout than 1st, and moved a touch close behind today.
