1. Poltomic Peppermint Patty with Marchog

Beautiful, well balanced ruby. Lovely size and proportions. Very appealing head and expression. Excellent coat and colour. Good ribcage. A bit steep in croup. Moves with lovely reach, but unfortunately slightly limping today – though not more than that I could evaluate her reach and balance. Lovely temperament.

Black and tan with good size. Nice head. Excellent length of ribcage. Her coat quality is ok, but she was lacking coat on her tail and also on her loin the coat was so sparse I could see the skin. Nice temperament.
