1ST 1958 - Ch Lovetrac Kamilla (Mr P F Lovel) – my star of the day, 2.5 year old tricolour, she presents an ideal outline, short and cobby, correct size but with adequate bone, excellent head piece, so pretty in expression created by her large dark round eyes, good rise to dome, with low set ears, short well filled muzzle, arched neck leading into a level topline, rounded ribcage, correctly angled in the front and rear allowing for sound movement in all directions, the picture is finished by a well broken silky coat, CC she stepped up her performance in the final challenge to take BOB in a close decision with the dog, shortlisted in the Toy group.

2ND 1971 - Ch Baldragon Russian Around with Khatibi (Miss L & Mr J Tarabad & Whitman) – 4 year old tricolour of a larger build than the winner, but sound throughout, well constructed body with a level topline and well set tail, well laid shoulder, and rounded ribcage, correct bend to stifle, typical head with large dark round eyes, low set ears, stylish mover, RCC.

3RD 1955 - Lux/bel/int Ch Una De Melcourt (Miss C Gurtner)
